

Executive Profile

Richard C. Cope
Executive Board Member

After earning a Ph.D. in Chemical Engineering, Richard worked for DuPont for ten years as the national sales manager. In 1981 he founded American Equities Financial Corporation in Dallas, Texas. As president and CEO of AEFC Dallas, he syndicated over $150 million of multi-family housing and an additional $70 million in development projects. His main focus was to provide affordable housing for moderate income families in the single and multi-family housing sector.

Richard has extensive knowledge in real estate law, acquisitions, syndications, construction, and marketing.

Richard is currently doing business in Texas and Utah. Richard will serve as a Chief Consultant and an Executive Member on the Advisory Board of the Texas Growth Fund IIC.

Richard is the father of thirteen and resides in the state of Utah.